Harmony Day Celebrations

Monday was a successful morning with our Harmony Day Celebrations. Thank you to Mrs Paletua for organising the special concert and thank you to the students who practiced during play times and class time to be ready for the day. It was great to have everyone together again.

School Council Annual General Meeting

On Tuesday night we held our School Council Annual General Meeting. I would like to thank Lynn Powell, Evelyn Butler, Andrew Hill, Sian Lennon, Carolyn Keeghan, and Sarah Edlington for their efforts over the past year in helping to make some school wide decisions with school processes and goals. Particularly thank you to Sian Lennon who will not be returning as a councillor this year.

Thank you to the following councillors for continuing for the 2022 school year:

President - Lyn Powell

Vice President-Andrew Hill

Secretary - Carolyn Keeghan

Treasurer - Evelyn Butler

General Members- Lynn Powell, Evelyn Butler, Andrew Hill, Carolyn Keeghan, and Sarah Edlington

School Cross Country

The last day of term has been dedicated to our school cross country event. Mrs Hannig has already marked out the track around the school grounds and students are practicing as part of their Phys Ed lessons. More information to come.

Facebook

Keep a close eye on our Facebook page. Year levels and Specialists are aiming to keep you up to date with what is happening in classrooms with regular posts

MPS CROSS COUNTRY

On Friday 8th of April we will be running a whole school event for Cross Country. Each grade has been preparing in their PE lessons. Students can come dressed in their house colours, so go all out but make sure they are in appropriate footwear for running. Families and friends are welcome to come cheer everyone on. There will also be a coffee van available on the day. Order of events will be out soon so stay tuned.
